Symbolize your lifelong connection with Cathedral

The Legacy Cross necklace, an exact replica of the iconic cross on Cathedral's campus, is a celebration of our Irish tradition, a sign of faith, and a tribute to those we love.

Inspired by the design of St. Martin's Cross on the Isle of Iona, Cathedral Legacy Cross is a symbol of faith, hope, and God's endless love. The Legacy Cross, donated by the McNulty family after the loss of their son, Stephen, memorializes all students who have passed away. The Legacy Cross necklaces, with the word "Cathedral" engraved on the back, lets students and alumni carry a piece of this special place with them in a very personal and meaningful way.

All profits from the sales of Legacy Cross necklaces are donated to the Stephen K. McNulty Memorial Scholarship Endowment at Cathedral to provide tuition assistance to students who otherwise might not be able to attend.
